

Press Release

Madrid, 11th January 2017

ECIJA recruits a new partner in the area of Privacy and Data Protection.

With an excellent career in the Firm, ECIJA consolidates Daniel López as a professional Partner.

Daniel López, lawyer specialized in Privacy and Data Protection, has been named partner of the Firm in recognition of his excellent professional career and contribution to ECIJA.

López, who joined ECIJA in November 2014, has more than 10 years of experience in legal advice on data protection, compliance, information security and technology law. He is the Founder and Director of the Ibero-American Observatory for Data Protection, has been awarded by the Spanish Data Protection Agency for the coordination of a research work on privacy in Latin America and has been recognized as outstanding lawyer of the year in Latin America in 2016.

LLB from the Universidad Complutense de Madrid, Daniel is also an Associate Professor at Instituto de Empresa and a lecturer at several Spanish Universities. Member of the Spanish Association of Sanitary Law, Counselor and Coordinator of Privacy Studies of the Ibero-American Observatory of Legislation, Jurisprudence and Public Policies in the field of Information and Communication Technologies, and member of the Advisory Board of the Mexican Academy of Computer Law.

In the words of Alejandro Touriño, Managing Partner at ECIJA Madrid, "it is a pride to be able to count on professionals like Daniel who have grown up with us and who help ECIJA continue to meet the expectations of its customers. It is also an example of effort and improvement for many of his colleagues." According to Daniel López, "this new professional category reinforces my commitment to the Firm, in which I hope to continue growing, working and innovating with the whole team."

Contact

Fátima Fontcuberta

+ 34 91 781 61 60

ffontcuberta@ecija.com

www.ecija.com