

BCN to Miami

Join us in this 75-minute afterwork seminar, where you can learn how to approach and access the most booming entrepreneurship market in the United States: Miami (FL).

Learn from legal experts in entrepreneurship the main legal aspects to setting up the best structure for your startup, operate and fund your business in the US market or and learn about visa and green card options. Organized by ECIJA Barcelona and moderated by Ricardo Oliveras, firm partner and head of Miami office, in collaboration with US attorneys in the field of entrepreneurship based in Miami: José de Wit, Immigration lawyer, and Giancarlo Messina, Corporate and Tax lawyer.

This seminar aims to provide you with a pragmatic approach of the do's and don'ts from a Spanish and US legal perspective if you are considering a jump across the Atlantic.

Topics covered will include:

- Your startup from a corporate and tax perspective.
- Funding your business.
- VISAs for entrepreneurs and key personnel.
- Spain-US Flip (considerations on tax matters and transfer of personal data).

Date: May 9th, 2023 (Tuesday)

Location: ECIJA Avenida Diagonal, 458
Planta 8ª, Barcelona

Agenda:

17:30h – 18:45h Presentation

18:45h – 19:15h Q&A

19:15h – 20:00h Pizza&Drinks @ ECIJA rooftop

Seminar will be given in English and Spanish

Ricardo Oliveras

Ecija partner based in Barcelona and Miami

José de Wit

Immigration lawyer based in Miami

Giancarlo Messina

Corporate & Tax lawyer
based in Miami

We have a limited amount of free passes so please let us know if you would like to attend by signing up at the following link: TBC

By accepting this invitation, you submit your information to the event organizer and co-sponsors, who will use it to communicate with you regarding this event and their other services.